Welcome

This is an online reference and resource written by and for the Surface Water Ambient Monitoring Program (SWAMP) at the California State Water Resources Control Board (State Water Board).

The SWAMP Team is composed of multiple team members at the State Water Board within the SWAMP Unit, SWAMP Information Management and Quality Assurance Center (SWAMP IQ), and others in the Office of Information Management and Analysis (OIMA).

Content in this manual includes loosely curated information that members of the SWAMP Unit have found helpful to support onboarding/offboarding, collaboration, communication, and our collective culture. It is place to document institutional knowledge and provide references to available resources.

This is a Quarto book, and is in development. If you have suggestions for additions or revisions you think should be incorporated into this book, please follow the guidance provided on the How to contribute chapter.

About SWAMP

Overview

SWAMP sits within the Water Board's Office of Information Management and Analysis (OIMA), which serves as an advocate for data management, a bridge between data collectors and users, as well as, provides transparency of the Water Board's information management infrastructure.

The SWAMP mission is to provide resource managers, decision makers, and the public with timely, high-quality data, information and tools needed to evaluate the condition of all surface waters throughout California.

SWAMP accomplishes this through carefully designed, externally reviewed statewide and regional surface water monitoring programs, and by assisting other entities state-wide in the generation of comparable data that can be brought together in integrated assessments that provide answers to current management questions.

In addition to providing information and tools, SWAMP's vision is to help enhance monitoring, assessment and reporting activities throughout the Water Boards.

SWAMP IQ strives to promote question-driven monitoring, and to ensure the highest quality data is used to evaluate the health of California's water bodies.

SWAMP IQ assists ambient monitoring projects and programs throughout the state by offering resources that support each stage of water quality monitoring, from sample collection to data entry, as well as providing quality assurance review, verification, and data storage.
